

London | Accra | Dubai

Become an International Mediator and Arbitrator

Center for International Mediators and Arbitrators (England and Wales)

International Fellowship in Arbitration (CIMA, England and Wales)

When you become a CIMA World Fellow in England and Wales (FCIMArb), you will become part of an elite community of the most highly qualified dispute resolution practitioners in the world. This comprehensive program provides professionals with the expertise to manage complex arbitral cases and draft enforceable awards with precision and confidence.

Embark on a transformative journey culminating in the award of the prestigious World Fellowship in International Commercial Arbitration, proudly endorsed by the World Arbitration School and the Oxfordshire-Africa Forum on International Arbitration.

Program Overview

The program combines flexibility and academic rigor, using a self-study model enhanced by online lectures and monthly tutorials. Tutorials provide an interactive platform for candidates to consolidate their knowledge, address challenges, and refine their arbitration skills under expert supervision.

The Program

- Part I: Law, Practice, and Procedure of International Arbitration (2 months)
- Part II: The Law of Obligations (2 months)
- Part III: Evidence, Decision-Making, and Award Writing (3 months)

Upon completion, participants gain eligibility for:

- Associate (ACIMArb) after Part I
- Member (MCIMArb) after Part II
- Fellow (FCIMArb) after Part III

Key Highlights

Part I: Law, Practice, and Procedure of International Arbitration

Gain foundational knowledge of arbitration principles and procedures.

Learning Outcomes:

- Understanding ADR and arbitration under the UNCITRAL Model Law.
- Applying arbitration agreements, arbitrator powers, and award enforcement.
- Navigating the relationship between courts and arbitral proceedings.

Part II: The Law of Obligations

Expand your understanding of contract and tort law, essential for resolving commercial disputes.

Learning Outcomes:

- Applying principles of contract and tort law in common and civil law systems.
- Analyzing and resolving disputes using legal remedies.

Part III: Evidence, Decision-Making, and Award Writing

Master the art of evaluating evidence, analyzing disputes, and drafting arbitral awards.

Learning Outcomes:

- Evaluating evidence and testimonies.
 - Drafting enforceable arbitral awards in line with UNCITRAL standards.
 - Determining arbitration costs and issuing final decisions.
-

Exemption Test

If you have a legal qualification, you may request an exemption from Module 2 by passing a 90-minute test covering contract and tort law.

Program Benefits

By completing this program, you will:

- Receive a certificate from CIMA.
- Achieve MCIMArb or FCIMArb membership.
- Gain recognition on the CIMA Arbitrator Roster (subject to criteria).

Language of Instruction: English

Program Duration: 7 months

Why Choose CIMA?

CIMA is a global leader in promoting alternative dispute resolution. Headquartered in England and Wales, it provides world-class training through its international network, fostering excellence in arbitration and mediation.

Are you ready to Advance Your Career?

Become a Qualified Dispute Resolution Professional

Certify your expertise in one or more ADR disciplines through CIMA's internationally renowned qualifications and programs.

Establish Your Credibility

Achieve globally recognized post-nominals such as Associate (ACIMArb), Member (MCIMArb), or World Fellow (FCIMArb), signaling your status as a trusted professional in the dispute resolution community.

Benefit from Continuous Learning

Access a wide range of learning opportunities, including webinars, specialized courses, and expert-led discussions as part of CIMA's ongoing professional development programs.

Build Your Network and Profile

Connect with dispute resolution professionals worldwide through CIMA's events, workshops, and its growing global network of practitioners and branches.

Access Practical Resources

Utilize CIMA's technical guidelines, templates, and resources to support your day-to-day practice in private dispute resolution.

Demonstrate Professional Commitment

Adhere to the CIMA Code of Professional and Ethical Conduct, showcasing your dedication to excellence, ethics, and professionalism in ADR practice.

Promote Your Skills and Experience

Enhance your visibility with a listing in the CIMA Member Directory and by contributing articles to CIMA's academic journal or professional publications.

Stay Informed

Keep up with industry trends, best practices, and CIMA updates through newsletters, bulletins, and publications tailored for dispute resolution professionals.

Make Your Voice Heard

Contribute to shaping the future of ADR by participating in CIMA-led consultations and thought leadership initiatives.

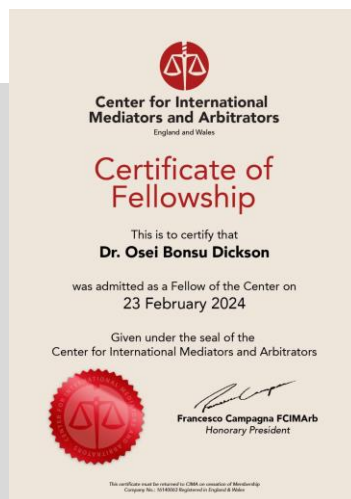

Elevate your career, expand your professional reach, and gain recognition in the global ADR community with CIMA membership. Join today!

Key Benefits of the World Fellowship:

- Global Recognition: The FCIMArb post nominal is a mark of distinction, demonstrating your advanced skills and knowledge in arbitration, mediation, or other ADR disciplines. It sets you apart as a trusted and credible professional in the international dispute resolution community.

- Leadership Status: As a Fellow, you are acknowledged as a leader in the field, opening doors to new opportunities, such as serving as a lead arbitrator, mediator, or advisor in high-profile and complex cases.
- Professional Credibility: Fellowship signifies that you have met the highest standards of competence and experience required to manage and resolve disputes effectively.
- Networking Opportunities: Gain access to CIMA's exclusive global network of Fellows, connecting you with like-minded experts, thought leaders, and practitioners across industries and jurisdictions.
- Contribute to the Profession: Fellows are often invited to mentor emerging professionals, contribute to policy discussions, and provide insights on evolving trends in ADR.
- Ongoing Development: Maintain your edge by participating in CIMA's advanced training programs, exclusive events, and thought leadership initiatives tailored for Fellows.

Becoming a Fellow of CIMA is more than a credential

It is a testament to your expertise, professionalism, and dedication to advancing the field of alternative dispute resolution.

Contact Us:

UK Head Office

Regus, Oxford Science Park, Robert Robinson Ave, John Eccles House, Oxford, Oxfordshire, OX4 4GP, United Kingdom

E: info@thecima.org

Africa Head Office

World Law Bldg, 4 Naa Shika Avenue, Haatso Mabey, Accra

T: +233241022964